

Three Ways to MBA at Strayer

At Strayer University we're really proud that we have a diverse portfolio of MBA offerings. We have our Strayer MBA program, we have Jack Welch MBA, and we have the Digital Entrepreneurship MBA program.

(Andrea Backman, Chief Employability Officer)

If anybody was going to change the face of online business education it was going to be Jack Welch.

(Jillian Menna, Alumni)

In JWMI (Jack Welch Management Institute) the game is all about people, you got to get everybody engaged. So our courses lay out all the things that a leader has to do to be comfortable communicating, authentic communicating, and real communicating.

(Jack Welch)

At Cheddar, with students you get to be part of a living laboratory. We infuse learning and study throughout somebody's day. We want students who are intrigued by what Google, Facebook, Airbnb, and Amazon are doing and inspired by the change going on in the world and want to learn and want to bring it into their careers

(Jon Steinberg, CEO Founder of Cheddar / Former COO of BuzzFeed / Co-Founder, Digital MBA with Cheddar)

Being able to get my Master's degree on my phone is a perfect thing for me, I'm all about growing, learning in the easiest way possible and cheddar gave the platform to be able to do that.

(Brandi Fox, Alumni)

The Strayer MBA is our traditional MBA program, which is a 10 course MBA program, and it's the fastest way to earn an MBA at Strayer University. So if you take 2 courses a quarter, you can be done in just a little over a year.

(Andrea Backman, Chief Employability Officer)

I'm fearless, there is like nothing I can't do now that I have done this.

(Dana Mallory, Alumni)

At Strayer, it's totally in our DNA to think about how to best serve adults students who have busy lives. It's what we have done for 126 years.
